Looking forward and looking back - opportunities to focus on 'severe' suffering

A free, one-day meeting convened by the RSPCA in association with the University of Manchester

Wednesday 20 April 2022, 10.30 – 15.45 UK time

Central Manchester location with good rail links

Sessions include:

- The Roadmap to reducing suffering, with case studies across a range of research areas
- Reducing and avoiding severe suffering in studies on animal diseases and disorders
- Retrospective assessment of severe procedures – how is your AWERB doing?

This face-to-face meeting is free to attend, including refreshments and lunch, thanks to the generosity of RSPCA donors and the University of Manchester. For those unable to attend in person, it is also likely that there will be the ability to watch online via a live stream - this will be confirmed in due course. If you would like to present or register, please contact animalsinscience@rspca.org.uk
